Give your candy away and expect nothing in return because Jesus left the splendor of Heaven to be born with nothing.

Do something nice for your siblings because God gave us the best gift of all that we might be brothers and sisters in Christ.

Help bake cookies and drop them off on neighbor's porches because Jesus is God's gift to all!

Gather donations for babies because Jesus had nothing but a lowly manger for a bed.

Leave a note and cookies for the mailman because the Star was a message of hope!

Send an email or letter to one (1) person you don't often write to because the Star was far-reaching in its message to the wise men.

Older children - give up one meal today and spend that time praying for those who are not believers and the needs of believers around the world.

Younger children - give up your snack today and spend time praying for others.

Share a prized possession with a sibling today because Jesus is a treasure we should share.

Choose one (1) item from the pantry to donate to the local food bank because Jesus is the Bread of Life.

Choose something from your possessions to donate to the thrift store because Jesus comes to a needy people.

Pool your money to help pay for clean water in another country because Jesus is the Living Water.

Because many people have died sharing the Gospel Truth of Jesus with others, today we donate to Voice of the Martyrs.

Spend time praying for our leaders because even though Herod wanted to kill Jesus, but the Truth cannot be snuffed out.

Take cookies to your piano teacher and thank her for teaching you to play.

Make a homemade gift for someone because Jesus is a simple, yet perfect gift.

Pray for your family - specific prayer needs, if possible.

Pray for your grandparents - specific needs, if possible.

Go to the store and buy something else for the Pregnancy Crisis Center.

Because Megan shares a birthday with the season we celebrate Jesus' birth, she gets to choose the blessing today.

Spend time with each sibling playing or reading.

Write a letter to one person and send.

Pray for all your aunts and uncles - specific needs, if possible.

Help make one (1) meal for your family today and clean up the kitchen afterwards.

Take time today to think about Jesus' gift to the world and the wonder and beauty of Christmas.

Sing Happy Birthday to Jesus! And thank Him for coming to earth to save mankind from their sins.
